Jumping HIGH! Jumping over! Climbing HIGH! Sliding down!
The CARNIVAL was fantastic! The Juniors enjoyed the CARNIVAL rides, the SHLUSHIES, everything!

Everyone has so much fun!

I scream. You scream, the Juniors scream for ICE CREAM! We made our very own ice cream. Put the ice in and add the other ingredients and then shake the bag, throw the bag, pass the ice around and Wow! ICE CREAM with SPRINKLES TOO!

BUNK DAY was a huge success. Each bunk learned their bunk song or cheer. Keep your ears tuned for our JUNIOR TUNES!

These were some of the special things happening around camp this week. We still enjoyed our regular activities too. ART, BAKING, SWIMMING AND BALL PLAYING. The sport of the week was HOCKEY. Using our special Junior sized hockey sticks we learned how to hold the stick and the rules of the game. Islanders here we come!

Looking forward to our trip next week.
Don't forget to wear your camp T-shirts.

Have an awesome Shabbos !

Juniors Rebbi Dvar Torah

Another amazing week with the heilige juniors! This Shabbos is Parshas Pinchas. When others were doing aveiros, Pinchas ran to do a Mitzvah. We heard a story about Yisroel Meir, a young boy who helped the water carrier when others tried to cause trouble. Yisroel Meir grew up to be the great tzaddik, the Chofetz Chaim.

Also this week, in honor of Shiva Asar B'Tamuz, we learned about Yerushalayim, the most wonderful place in the world! We heard special Yerushalayim stories. Yitzi found a huge gold coin on Shabbos. He did not pick it up because he knew how special the mitzvah of Shabbos is! In our second Yerushalayim story we heard about Miriam, a young girl who received a bracha for her chessed and would later have a descendant who would be the great Rav Shlomo Zalman Aurbach. These special stories about the special people of Yerushalayim help inspire us to daven to Hashem that next year we will be able to celebrate the YOM TOV of Shiva Asar B'Tamuz in the rebuilt Yerushalayim!

Have a wonderful shabbos.
