SUMMER 2023

ISSUE #3

JULY 14, 2023

Is that a plane? Is that a bird? No!

It's a Simcha Junior flying in the sky!!

Helicopter rides, motorcycle rides, a merry-go-round and trains oh what fun the Juniors had in Adventures Park.

The park was exclusively ours and we had a blast on all the rides!

Baseball was the sport of the week. We learned the rules and the skills of the game, how to hold the bat, never swing a bat with someone near you, touch all the bases.....

But connecting with the ball was the best part! Homerun!

Our airplane competition was loads of fun. Learning how to fold a paper and create an airplane is a lifelong skill for any boy.

Ready, set, fly..... and the winning plane was.....

All the Juniors!!

Some special activities that we enjoyed this week was, as usual Art, Baking, Movement and Swim of course. We also had fun making puff paint and painting with it!!

What an incredible FLYtastic week!

Juniors Rebbi Dvar Torah

The holy Tanna, Nachum Ish Gam Zu was in a real predicament. A thief replaced a gift intended for the Roman Emperor with a worthless box of dirt.

Throughout his ordeal Nachum maintained his famous saying, “Gam Zu L’tova”, this is also for the best. Sure enough, Eliyahu Hanavi appeared and Nachum was spared. Nachum’s student, Rabi Akiva likewise teaches us this lesson. Forced to sleep in the woods and bereft of his donkey, rooster and candle, Rabi Akiva kept repeating that everything that Hashem does is for the best.

Sure enough, what appeared to be problems were factors in saving his life. Our third story of the week was about a kindly woman who always baked extra challah for people in need. One day her bag of flour flew away in the wind! Sounds like a problem. But of course, “Gam Zu L’tova” and her flour saves the day.

Have a great Shabbos Kodesh Chazak!
