Torah B'Simcha

דברים

At the beginning of the Parsha, Moshe Rabbeinu mentions Nahar Pras as a boundary of Eretz Yisrael and refers to it as “Hanahar Hagadol, the Big River.” Rashi explains that since it was mentioned with Eretz Yisrael it was called “hagadol”, even though it was not really part of Eretz Yisrael. Rav Chaim Shmulevitz points out that we see from here that Eretz Yisrael makes everything that is associated with it bigger and better. The Nahar Pras was the smallest river, yet since it was associated with Eretz Yisrael it was referred to as hagadol. He explains that this is true by many other things as well. Chazal tell us that ain Torah k'Toras Eretz Yisrael, which means that limud haTorah in Eretz Yisrael is better than limud haTorah outside of Eretz Yisrael. The Ramban also points out in a number of places that the hashgacha that Hashem has for Eretz Yisrael is more direct than anywhere else. This is why nevuah only exists in Eretz Yisrael, as well as numerous other halachos. Rav Chaim asks why the people who are living there don't always feel this higher level of Kedusha and closeness to Hashem. He explains that Chazal tell us that Moshe asked Hashem why Yosef's bones could go into Eretz Yisrael, but his couldn't. Hashem responded that when Yosef met Pharaoh he referred to himself as an Ish Ivri, someone who was from Eretz Yisrael.

However, when Yisro's daughters told their father that they had been saved by an Ish Mitzri, an Egyptian man, Moshe didn't protest that he was really an Ish Ivri. Since Moshe wasn't modeh bah, he didn't admit and proclaim to be from Yisrael, he was undeserving of entrance into Eretz Yisrael. Rav Chaim asks, however, that when Yisro's daughters referred to Moshe as an Ish Mitzri they were also implying that he wasn't Jewish, yet we don't find that Moshe was punished for not refuting that claim, so why was he punished for not refuting their claim that he was a mitzri? Rav Chaim answers that entrance into Eretz Yisrael only for those who are modeh bah is something that Hashem set up in the world as a fact. One can only feel the kedusha of Eretz Yisrael, and merit the special hashgacha of Eretz Yisrael, if he is aware of it and is modeh to it. Since Moshe didn't do that it would've been impossible for him to enter it. On Tisha B'Av we mourn the destruction of the Beis Hamikdah, the destruction of Yerushalayim, and the exile from Eretz Yisrael. The only way we can merit having those things restored is if we daven for them and are modeh to them. We have to feel like we need them and that they should be part of our lives only then will we merit to see Moshiach b'meheirah b'yameinu, amen

LIVE REPORT!

How is it possible that such an incredibly, spectacularly, dramatically, amazingly fun week at SDC is also the END THE 1ST HALF OF THE SUMMER ☹?! We have to say goodbye to some of our friends! So sad! And bad! And unglad! But wait! This also means that the second half of Summer '23, with all its own incredibly, spectacularly, dramatically, amazingly fun is about to begin!

The first thing I noticed this week was campers lining up at the office. "Why do you all need to go to the office?" I asked curiously. "We've got Chai Lifeline money to hand in" they all exclaimed and explained!!! You see, the boys have been raising money for the SDC Chai Life line Bowl-a-thon! Every year the boys raise thousands of dollars for Chai Lifeline. This year the campers participated in an awesome bowling tournament with all the proceeds going to Chai Lifeline. I can't wait to see how much we raise. Special mention to Noah Wegh and Mayer Reiser, both who raised over $1000 each? Kol hakavod! Boys have been getting sponsors, making calls, making sales and food or drink stands, getting sponsors for reading tehilim and so many more exciting after camp sponsorship ideas. Some went onto the Chai Lifeline website, made their own page and sent the link out to their family and friends. The tzedaka and mitzvos keep compiling! We did mention to campers the idea of asking permission from parents before collecting, and the idea that kibud av va'eim is also an important mitzva as well.

In other news, this week the 60's and 70's headed out to Country Fair, the most exciting and picturesque entertainment park on Long Island. The boys enjoyed Hi Speed Go Karts, The Laser Frontier which utilizes the most advanced laser tag technology for the most exciting gameplay in full sunlight. With bunkers, barrels and hide-behind homes, our campers enjoyed every moment of their battles. And of course with the playoffs and world series on the horizon, what better way to prepare than by stepping into the ultimate batting cage experience, with speeds ranging from 60-90 mph. Our super excited campers met the challenge head on!

Speaking of playoffs, in the 40's division it all came down to a slugfest between the Peaches and Sweet Potatoes. And even though Sweet Potatoes star Avi Mikhli made an eye popping diving catch, the Peaches were victorious 14-7 behind stellar pitching from Eli Oratz. The 50's division World Series started with Rabbi Polter throwing out his signature 110 MPH fastball first pitch. The game turned into one of those back and forth games where nobody looked like they were going to lose. We saw David Putter catch a bomb line drive, and Shiloh “Willy Mays” Mizrachi, making plays all over the outfield. Akiva Miller filled up the box score with a home run, double play, and run saving effort at home plate. In the end the Hyatts outlasted Kings Plaza 14-10. The 60's and 70's World Series was a nailbiter in its own right. Though Levi Gold stole the show with a Home run and SDC World Series records 14 K's!!!! A Clemson defeated Boise St. by the way did you see that incredible play by Yosef Klein, stretching a single into a triple with some aggressive baserunnig avoiding several run downs?!

And with all that action, was there really still enough time for Q-Zar, Late nights, Switch, JSL Clinics, The Great Challa Make, and so much more?! Oh yes there was!!!! Thanks to our incredible staff who are leaving us for the second half. You will all be missed!!! We can't wait to the start of the second Half next week. More bowling! Tie Dye! (just make sure to bring in your WHITE tshirt/undershirt and Ziploc) and so much more at SDC where the action never stops!!!

CIT CHILL

Yessireebob!!!

First half in the books?? Cray-cray!

The championship had all the drama we expected,
but with the game 52-50 going into the 4th,

Daniel went into complete beast mode, and his team outscored a worthy opponent by 25 in the final quarter.

In addition, we also had a great time bowling, and of course, the CIT Appreciation Breakfast, with inspiring words from Rabbi Rohr, was as mouth wateringly delicious as we've come to expect here at SDC. We are sad to see a few of the guys go for the second half. You will be missed! Just know you'll always be in our thoughts, and in our hearts.

Can't wait for a ROCKIN' second half boysss!!!

All the best,

Rabbi Meyer
